Kapp, chief orator; T. Dennis Harper, past valiant commander; Patrick F. Carr, worthy treasurer; William F. Rick, cardinal recorder; George Dietz, flautist; recorder; W. H. Herber, a promising candidate for 1903; as James Corridon promises 912 1st street, with the provision that they revert to the testatrix's niece, Kate Corridon.

Generally Declined.
Mr. F. G. Elker has offered to dedicate to the District the land necessary for the opening of Frankfort street between the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and 12th street northeast, provided the roadway shall be macadamized. The computing engineer has recommended to the Commissioners that Mr. Elker be induced to dedicate the land to street to grade, but will not permit to be macadamized at present. Mr. Hunt deems it inadvisable to accept of such offer of dedication and has declined.

The sale of the beautiful mahogany furniture, etc., from the old New England house, which was held at the Simmons Sale, was largely attended, and bargains secured. The sale continues tomorrow and Friday at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. each day by catalogue.—Advertisement.

As Taken of Estate.
A delegation of members of the Metropolitan police force, headed by Lieut. John M. C. of the tenth precinct, called on Mr. C. L. Frick, assistant city solicitor, at the Victoria Monument evening and presented to him a costly umbrella, as a token of the esteem in which Mr. Frick is held by the men of the tenth precinct. The presentation was made by Lieut. Kenney. He assured the delegation that all of the officers of the precinct are his friends. Replying, Mr. Frick thanked the delegation for the gift of the umbrella, and said that he appreciated the sentiment which prompted the gift. The handle of the umbrella was appropriately inscribed.

Card Index for Dog Licenses.
Mr. E. G. Davis, the collector of taxes, has notified the District Commissioners that for the convenience of the public and the office he has prepared a card index of all the dogs in the District, and has taken out licenses for the dogs in the District.
